

People get into our tee parties in a big way. We show them how to take a simple t-shirt and turn it into a fabulous custom creation you'd see on Robertson. SO FUN.

Barbra Horowitz's Tee Parties have quickly become the toast of the town in cities throughout the country. Replacing the traditional tarot card reader formerly seen at the company gathering, the wedding or the bar mitzvah, a Tee Party offers:

- A unique on-site outlet for creativity
- The world's most utilized party favor... a great looking outfit for each guest.
- All supplies brought by your Tee Party representative

Started in 2001, Tee Parties have been showcased at events of all sizes and budgets - from parties hosted by Vanity Fair, Vogue, Self Magazine, Air Jordan, and Nike to private gatherings and charitable events.
